General Discussion	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Review <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Carlton will provide the maps Aug. 1. Nancy, Robert and Christy are going to his office after meeting to review. Maintenance – the three senior centers are consolidating and taking their vehicles to Shorey Auto for all maintenance. They can provide all services and to state inspections O'Reilly's – Nancy Irwin is checking on whether a national and/or state level discount can be negotiated. Capital City Gas – can a state rate be negotiated? Insurance – information still be researched Trapeze: While this software is not efficient for a small fleet (such as a combination of the senior centers), TMTA will be asked to take the data gathered and figure the most efficient routes Rick Ellis: Ameri-Corp VISTA – teaching and working with seniors and disabled to ride the bus Who are other communities doing senior transportation and what can we learn? Where do seniors live in Shawnee County – 2010 census data is not available by block. This info will be available in the next couple of months. Suggested that in August/September we invite a representative from the City Council, County Commission, MPO and State to join the committee for a briefing of what we have been doing and what has been accomplished. 	August 1 Nancy Irwin Robert and Nancy I.
